

PATRIOT RENEWABLES, LLC NAMES C. TREVOR CHILDS PROJECT COORDINATOR
August 21, 2006

QUINCY, MA (8.21.06) - - Patriot Renewables, LLC, a renewable energy subsidiary of Jay Cashman, Inc., announces the appointment of C. Trevor Childs as project coordinator for the proposed South Coast Offshore Wind Project in Buzzards Bay. As a project manager, Mr. Childs will be responsible for overseeing and coordinating the planning and execution of the project.

Mr. Childs holds a bachelor of arts degree with honors in Urban Economics from Boston College. He graduated magna cum laude from the College of Arts & Sciences' Honors Program. Following his graduation in 2004, Mr. Childs joined the firm of Jay Cashman, Inc. as a member of the company's environmental group, where he has been engaged in researching renewable energy and waste recycling technologies, and working in marketing and project management. Mr. Childs brings a focus on wind development projects to his management of the South Coast Offshore Wind Project. Together with Todd Presson, director of wind energy development for Patriot Renewables, he will help guide the project as it proceeds through the state and federal approval and permitting process.

Patriot Renewables, LLC, a renewable energy affiliate of Jay Cashman, Inc., is currently studying the feasibility of an offshore wind project in Buzzards Bay called the South Coast Offshore Wind Project. South Coast Wind is committed to working cooperatively with SouthCoast communities and organizations to develop a viable wind energy project that will meet the energy needs of the region and bring new jobs, vitality and tourism to the area.
